Schools Services: Videoconferencing Content Provider

Now you can experience a Museum of London or a Museum of London Docklands session without even leaving the classroom! Each session allows your pupils to interact with characters or educators from the Museum and to investigate objects from our collection, via videoconference.

Email: learning@museumoflondon.org.uk

Primary level videoconferences are available on advertised dates and times. Click each session below to see available dates.

Primary Contact: Catherine Stevenson. Tel: +44 (0)20 7814 5574

Secondary level videoconferences are available on request. We will try to run sessions according to requested dates and times where possible and can run up to three sessions per day. Bookings must be made at least 30 days in advance to ensure this is possible. The minimum group size is 25 and those booking more than one session will have priority.

Secondary Contact: Lucie Parkes. Tel: +44 (0)20 7814 5772

All videoconference sessions are FREE.
